HR POLICES

At Propshelter, employees are the key to our success, and we are committed to a fair and positive workplace.

This HR Policy outlines the guidelines, rules, procedures, and service agreement governing employment. It ensures transparency, consistency, and compliance with applicable laws and company standards.

The policy defines employee responsibilities, conduct, benefits, and terms of engagement.

Propshelter reserves the right to update these policies and service agreements as per business and legal requirements.

1. Service Agreement

The employee agrees to serve the organization for a minimum period of one (1) year from the date of joining.

In case the employee wishes to resign before or after completion of the service period, they are required to provide a minimum notice period of 60 days in writing.

If the employee fails to serve the required notice period, they shall be liable to pay salary in lieu of the unserved notice period.

The company reserves the right to accept or waive the notice period at its discretion

2. Probation Policy

All new employees at Propshelter will be on a probation period of three (3) months from the date of joining.

During this period, the employee's performance, conduct, and suitability for the role will be closely monitored and evaluated by the management.

Upon successful completion of the probation period, the employee will be confirmed in their position based on satisfactory performance.

The company reserves the right to extend the probation period or terminate employment during or at the end of the probation period if performance or conduct is found unsatisfactory.

Either party may terminate employment during the probation period by providing 7 days' notice or salary in lieu of notice.

3. Attendance Policy

The standard working hours at Propshelter are from 10:00 AM to 6:00 PM, six (6) days a week.

Employees are entitled to a 40-minute break during working hours.

A grace period of 10 minutes is allowed for late coming. Any arrival beyond this will be considered as late attendance.

- Up to 3 late arrivals in a month will result in a warning email.
- The 4th late will lead to a half-day salary deduction.
- From the 6th late onwards, it will be treated as a full-day deduction for each occurrence.

Employees are expected to maintain punctuality and adhere strictly to the attendance policy.

4. Leave Policy

Employees at Propshelter are entitled to the following leaves on an annual basis:

- Sick Leave: 12 days per year
- Casual Leave: 12 days per year

During the probation period, only sick leave is permitted. Casual leave cannot be availed during this period.

All leave requests must be approved by the reporting manager in advance, except in case of emergencies.

The company reserves the right to modify the leave policy as per business and statutory requirements.

5. Maternity & Paternity Policy

At Propshelter, we support employees during important life events such as parenthood and related medical conditions.

Female employees are entitled to maternity leave as per applicable law, which is currently up to 26 weeks of paid leave, subject to eligibility criteria.

In case of miscarriage or medical termination of pregnancy, female employees are entitled to 6 weeks of paid leave, as per applicable law, upon submission of medical proof.

Male employees are entitled to 5 days of paternity leave, which can be availed at the time of childbirth, with prior approval from management.

Employees must inform the company in advance and submit necessary documents to avail these leaves.

The company will ensure support for employees returning to work after completion of their leave period.

6. Payroll Policy

At Propshelter, employee attendance is calculated for the period from 1st to 30th of each month.

Salaries are processed based on attendance, leave records, and applicable deductions.

The salary will be credited on or before the 10th of every month.

Any discrepancies in salary must be reported to the HR department within a reasonable time.

7. Work From Home Policy

At Propshelter, employees are allowed to work from home for a maximum of three (3) days per month, strictly based on genuine emergencies.

All Work From Home requests must be approved by both the Reporting Manager and HR in advance.

Employees are expected to remain available during working hours and maintain productivity while working remotely.

Misuse of the Work From Home policy may lead to revocation of this privilege or disciplinary action.

8. Hike Policy

At Propshelter, employees are eligible for a yearly salary hike based on their performance and contribution to the organization.

The hike percentage will typically range from 5% to 15%, depending on individual performance, company performance, and management discretion.

Performance evaluations will be conducted periodically to assess employee achievements and growth.

The final hike decision will be subject to management approval.

9. Performance Management Policy

At Propshelter, performance management is a continuous process aimed at improving employee productivity and aligning individual goals with organizational objectives.

Employees' performance will be evaluated periodically based on key performance indicators (KPIs), work quality, attendance, and overall contribution.

Regular performance reviews and feedback sessions will be conducted by the reporting manager to support employee development and address any gaps.

Outstanding performance may be recognized through rewards, incentives, and career growth opportunities, while underperformance may lead to a Performance Improvement Plan (PIP).

Final performance ratings and decisions related to appraisals will be subject to management and HR approval.

10. Code of Conduct Policy

At Propshelter, all employees are expected to maintain the highest standards of professionalism, integrity, and ethical behavior in the workplace.

Employees must treat colleagues, clients, and stakeholders with respect and dignity, and avoid any form of harassment, discrimination, or misconduct.

All employees are required to adhere to company rules, maintain confidentiality of business information, and use company resources responsibly.

Any behavior that harms the organization's reputation or disrupts the workplace environment will not be tolerated.

Violation of the Code of Conduct may result in disciplinary action, including warning, suspension, or termination of employment.

11. Dress Code Policy

At Propshelter, employees are expected to maintain a professional and formal dress code during working hours.

All employees must wear neat, clean, and appropriate formal attire that reflects a professional workplace environment.

Casual, inappropriate, or overly informal clothing is not permitted unless specifically approved by management.

Employees are expected to maintain proper grooming and personal hygiene at all times.

Failure to adhere to the dress code may result in disciplinary action.

12. Anti-Harassment Policy

At Propshelter, we are committed to providing a safe, respectful, and inclusive work environment free from any form of harassment.

Harassment of any kind—verbal, physical, sexual, or psychological—is strictly prohibited. This includes inappropriate behavior, unwanted advances, offensive remarks, or any conduct that creates a hostile work environment.

All employees are expected to treat each other with dignity and respect at all times.

Any employee who experiences or witnesses harassment is encouraged to report the matter to HR or management without fear of retaliation.

Strict action will be taken against individuals found guilty of harassment, which may include disciplinary action up to termination of employment.

13. Confidentiality Policy

At Propshelter, employees are required to maintain strict confidentiality of all company-related information.

This includes business data, client details, financial information, employee records, and any other sensitive or proprietary information.

Employees must not disclose, share, or misuse confidential information during or after their employment with the company.

Any unauthorized disclosure or breach of confidentiality will be treated as serious misconduct and may lead to disciplinary action, including termination.

Employees may also be required to sign a Non-Disclosure Agreement (NDA) as part of their employment.

14. Device Policy

At Propshelter, all devices provided by the company, including laptops, desktops, and mobile devices, are to be used strictly for official purposes.

Employees are responsible for maintaining the safety, security, and proper usage of company-issued devices.

Installation of unauthorized software, access to inappropriate websites, or misuse of company devices is strictly prohibited.

Employees must ensure that all company data stored on devices is kept secure and confidential at all times.

In case of damage, loss, or theft of any company device, the employee must inform HR or management immediately.

Failure to comply with the device policy may result in disciplinary action.

15. Notice Period Policy

At Propshelter, employees are required to serve a notice period based on their role/designation when resigning from the organization.

Notice Period Structure

| Designation | Notice Period |
|-------------|---------------|
| Interns     | 15 Days       |
| Associate   | 30 Days       |
| Team Lead   | 60 Days       |
| Manager     | 60 Days       |

Employees must serve the full notice period or pay salary in lieu of the unserved notice period.

The company reserves the right to waive or adjust the notice period based on business requirements

16. Exit & Termination Policy

At Propshelter, employees may separate from the organization through resignation, termination, or mutual agreement.

Resignation

Employees intending to resign must submit a formal written resignation and serve the applicable notice period based on their designation:

- Interns – 15 days
- Associates – 30 days
- Team Leads / Managers – 60 days

Failure to serve the required notice period will result in payment in lieu of the unserved notice period.

Termination

The company reserves the right to terminate employment due to unsatisfactory performance, misconduct, policy violations, or business requirements, in compliance with applicable laws.

Exit Formalities

Employees must complete all handover responsibilities, knowledge transfer, and return of company assets before their last working day.

Full & Final Settlement

The Full & Final (F&F) settlement will be processed after successful completion of exit formalities, as per company policy.

17. Full & Final (F&F) Settlement Policy

At Propshelter, the Full & Final (F&F) settlement will be processed for employees upon resignation, termination, or separation from the organization.

The settlement will include pending salary, leave encashment (if applicable), incentives, and deductions such as notice pay, loans, or any company liabilities.

Employees must complete all exit formalities, including clearance from all departments and return of company assets, before the settlement is processed.

The F&F settlement will be processed within 30 days from the employee's last working day.

Any discrepancies in the settlement must be reported to the HR department within a reasonable time.

18. Policy Acceptance & Amendment

All employees of Propshelter are required to read, understand, and comply with the HR policies of the organization.

By continuing employment, employees acknowledge that they have accepted all HR policies of the company.

The company reserves the right to modify, update, or amend any policy at any time based on business needs, legal requirements, or operational changes.

Any such changes will be communicated to employees, and they are expected to adhere to the revised policies.

Employee Acknowledgment

I hereby confirm that I have read, understood, and agree to abide by all the HR policies of Propshelter.
